

Looe

Looe

6 DAY TOURS

The Cornish fishing town of Looe is split into two resorts, East and West Looe, joined by a seven-arched Victorian bridge across the river Looe. West Looe is built around the Church of St. Nicholas, erected before 1336. East Looe is popular for its pleasant shopping area and quayside where you can watch the local fishermen unload their catch.

OUR INCLUDED EXCURSIONS

A half day excursion to the picturesque fishing village of Polperro. Like most Cornish villages, Polperro has a history of smuggling and there is a museum of smuggling in Talland Street, but its legal trade is fishing. The oldest house in the village dates from the 16th century and stands by a Saxon bridge over the River Pol.

A day tour to Plymouth. Visit world famous heritage sites like Plymouth Hoe and Mayflower steps. In the Barbican, you can enjoy centuries of maritime tradition. Shop to your heart's content in the city centre shopping boulevards. Or simply relax on the waterfront and enjoy the stunning views across the harbour.

An excursion to Mevagissey a delightful and unspoilt Cornish fishing village. White washed stone houses, lead down to the two harbours and where you can wander the narrow alleyways, browse gift shops and art galleries or try the local ale in one of the many quaint traditional pubs.
