'Welcome to the Edward's Group Department'

Headed by Roger Davies, our Groups Department based at our Head office is here to provide tailor made tours to suit both your requirements and budget. If you are a group of 20 or more people, whatever your requirements, be it a short break on the South Coast, a European getaway, a gastronomic tour of Southern Ireland or a Health & Beauty weekend - we have the knowledge and know-how to make sure that every detail is covered with professionalism and efficiency.

From your initial enquiry right through to your departure and beyond, you are assured a level of service second to none. Roger is on hand to advise you in the planning stages, ensuring that all of your requirements are met, and Groups Co-ordinator Fran will assist you with your accommodation requirements, the management of your payments, and all the finer details of your tour in the lead up to departure.

We offer a superb free place policy* based on travelling passengers, not paying passengers. This means you get your free places earlier. Parties of 10 or more paying passengers can also take advantage of our Free Place policy when joining an advertised tour (applicable to UK & European coach tours only, excluding Disney Resort Paris)

Our Group Organisers are treated as a part of our extended family, and so you will always be assured of that personal service with a friendly smile - and even the odd joke or two - Roger is widely known for his wit!

We appreciate how difficult it can be arranging tours for large groups of people. Being a Group Organiser means you can benefit from Educational visits - ideal for getting new ideas for your group - and the highlight of any organisers social calendar, the must-attend event of the year - the annual Christmas party!

Don't forget - as a Group Organiser you need to ensure that you are working within the legal requirements as set out by the Package Travel, Package Holidays & Package Tours Regulations 1992, and the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers Licensing) Regulations 1972. By using Edwards Coaches to arrange your tours, you are assured complete peace of mind with regards to your compliance of these regulations.

So no matter how large the group, whatever your requirements, or wherever you want to go, Edwards Coach Holidays Groups Department will assist you every step of the way.
